VEGAS STYLE ENTERTAINMENT PREMIERS IN RICHMOND

~Recapture the Memory honors music icons~

Jake Holmes
 Producer

RICHMOND, VA – Lights, camera and lots of action. The City is Richmond, but the style is strictly Las Vegas, complete with costume changes, unrivaled entertainment and show-stopping performances paying tribute to some of the music industries larger-than-life icons.

Lance Dickerson
 Music Director

Recapture the Memory is the brainchild of local marketing executive, Jake Holmes. The concept came to him after he attended a Motown Review show in Los Vegas "It was great," said Holmes, "As I sat in amazement I began to picture a presentation of this nature in the Richmond metropolitan area."

So, Holmes assembled some of the best artists in the greater Richmond area to perform some of the greatest songs from bygone eras. "I knew there were people like me who wanted to feel the vibe and recapture the memory of some of the greatest songs from the 60s and 70s," said Holmes.
